12. Significant contributions made by IQAC during the current year(maximum five bullets)

Significant contributions made by IQAC during the current year 1 Minimizing plagiarism in student report/assignment: To ensure originality and inhibit copying tendencies among students, turnitin based assignment as part of internal component was introduced. This has significantly reduced plagiarism tendency among students. 2 Engagement with Industry Experts: Each course will have 2 minimum industry talks out of which 50 of industry experts for guest talk should be new and not repetition along with mandate with more senior level executives. 3 Automation of SelfAssessment form: Major action was automation of selfassessment audit form for course instructors in Moodle platform. This was done to ensure transparency, and mandate for sample assignments other class activities. 4 Library for last several years is emphasizing to move in digital direction and hence keep increasing its online resources including ebooks. From current financial year, book bank books are given as ebooks only in a number of courses. Library has access to over 3300 full text journals/magazines as well as indexing/abstracting information of over 12000 journals/magazines through Ebsco Business Source Complete and other databases, Emerald HR Collection, Emerald Marketing Collection, JGate Social and Management Science subscription and DELNET Resources. Library also subscribes Sage Online Journals package for 29 journals and iScholar from Informatics in addition to online access available with plus print journals of many journals and magazines. 5 We have Learning Management System (Moodle) which makes it easy for provide online support for the course, online learning, teaching, online quiz, attendance, faculty feedback, timetable, online elective selection, and online assignment of marks and calculation of grades, computation of Grade Point Average (GPA), computation of Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA), printing of grade sheets / mark sheet / transcript. Providing a central space on the web where students, faculty and staff can access a set of tools and resources anytime anywhere. Staff and students of the Department have found most valuable aspects like a quick way to share documents, Discussion Forums, Online assignment handling etc.

Yes

1.4.2 - How the feedback obtained is being analyzed and utilized for overall development of the institute (maximum 500 words)

Feedback Obtained

To develop a robust system of teaching learning, it is very important to develop a feedback mechanism that captures the value from the eyes of stakeholders. A sound system for evaluating teaching and course quality in higher education has long been established in the leading B-schools. Perspectives driven both internally by institutions themselves and external stakeholders for increased transparency, accountability and quality assurance. Whilst there could be a large number of possible sources of feedback and evaluation data on both teaching and course quality (including for example, course documentation, progression rates, curriculum design processes, teaching committees, etc.) the most common source of input for teaching evaluation is feedback from students. At Jaipuria Institute of Management we regularly take feedback on the contents, pedagogy as well as faculty delivery styles in the courses taught each trimester. The feedback is compiled, analyzed and then submitted to the Director of the institute with a copy to each faculty. The Director then discusses it with the faculty, as desired. Similar feedback mechanisms exist for the other facilities available by the students in the campus and hostel. The feedback is quite appreciative from the student community and their suggestions are incorporated. We also take feedback from the recruiters who visit the campus as well as guest faculty. Their feedback is incorporated while designing the curriculum as well as for general grooming and training purposes. The feedback is also received from the parents at different platforms and they are incorporated as desired. Alumni also contribute their share of feedback for the general growth of the institute which is welcomed and acknowledged at different platforms. We are sensitive to the expectations of the parents as they hand their wards to this B-school across different programmes. It is our endeavour to keep the promise that they receive at the time of admission of their ward and a feedback is taken on a survey questionnaire at the conclusion of the programme during the convocation ceremony. We are quite happy to share the feedback collected on various parameters from Parents of Graduating Students.
