on
SUSTAINABLE WASTE MANAGEMENT

January 3rd, 2025 | 9.30 AM

ABOUT THE EVENT

In a rapidly evolving world, sustainable waste management has emerged as a cornerstone for building an environmentally resilient future. The panel discussion on Sustainable Waste Management will bring together industry experts, environmental advocates, policymakers, and innovators to discuss and deliberate on actionable strategies for managing waste sustainably.

With a focus on innovation, circular economy principles, and community-driven solutions, this event aims to highlight the importance of reducing, reusing, and recycling in addressing the global waste crisis. By fostering collaboration and sharing best practices, the event will pave the way for creating eco-conscious systems that align with a sustainable and thriving planet for generations to come. Be part of this transformative dialogue and join the movement towards a cleaner, greener future!
